Independence Day Weekend

- The charitable portion of our tithes this weekend will go to the Saint Clare Home, which is a home for unwed mothers that will be opening in our diocese in the future.
- Our second collection this weekend is for our capital campaign, Building God's Kingdom.
- The flowers in the sanctuary are in memory of Albert Karey. May he rest in peace.
- This weekend, we celebrate our independence as a nation. We ask God's continued blessings upon our country. In honor of our nation, and its numerous local police departments, we will have a patriotic song as our closing hymn.
- Thank you to everyone who joined in for the Decree Ceremony this past Monday. It was a blessing to have the Bishop with us. On the occasion of the papal decree, I ask that we all pray and ask God how each of us can be better instruments of mercy in our own lives.
- In that spirit, please note that there are FREE copies of the book, 33 Days to Merciful Love. This is a great preparation book on making a personal consecration to the Divine Mercy of the Lord Jesus. Please take a copy (take a few)! This is a beautiful and powerful help to the spiritual life.
- As an expression of my new ministry as a Missionary of Mercy, I'm extending our daily Confession times. They will now be from 11:00 AM – 11:50 AM. I also actively ask for any other ideas on how or when we can include additional new Confession times here at the parish.
