

Pulpit Announcements

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 13, 2020

- The charitable portion of our tithe this weekend will go to the Catholic University of America. This is an annual collection of the US Bishops.
- The flowers in the sanctuary are in honor of Jim and Susan Cronley's 29th Wedding Anniversary. Happy Anniversary!
- Due to my annual retreat, we will not have Confessions and daily Masses this coming week at the parish. All other events are still happening: the Rosary, daily devotions, Adoration on Monday evening and Tuesday-Wednesday afternoons, the Wednesday Bible Study, and our Daily Briefings. Thank you to Deacon Doc, Tom Heath, and our Rosarians for making this happen!
- Please be sure to use the "charlestdiocese" email addresses for communication with staff. We don't use any other email addresses. We don't want to lose any of your correspondences to us!
- The Bishop announced this past week that Father Javier Heredia, former pastor of Saint Catherine's Parish (down Highway 521), has been cleared of any and all charges relating to allegations of sexual misconduct with a minor. After a two-year investigation, local authorities have now cleared him. He will return to priestly ministry soon.
- 11:00 AM Mass only: We gratefully acknowledge the presence of the Women-to-Women fellowship. These are the many holy widows of our parish who selflessly and joyfully support and serve our community. Thank you, Holy Women!
