Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time October 4, 2020

- The charitable portion of our tithe this weekend will go to the Saint Clare Home, which will be a future home for unwed mothers in South Carolina. We're happy to support the effort to launch this important outreach! <http://stclareshomesc.org>
- The flowers in the sanctuary are in memory of Robert Striedl. May he rest in peace!
- Our Wednesday Bible Study continues this coming week. We'll discuss the dark figure of Lamech and the emergence of polygamy in Genesis 4. All are invited to tune in via Grace Lily.
- This coming Saturday, October 10, we continue our October Healing Masses. As a help to receive God's grace and strength, every Saturday of October we will have a Healing Mass at 11:00 AM with the Anointing of the Sick. All in need of the sacrament are welcome! Additional safety and sanitary precautions will be in place.
- This Sunday afternoon at 1:00 PM, we'll have our annual Blessing of Pets under the pavilion. All pets – big and small - are welcome! Additional spacing will be observed.
- As a parish, we've been blessed with the talent and resources to develop and enhance an extensive live-streaming service. With this blessing comes a responsibility. As such, I encourage all parishioners to please share our content with their friends, neighbors, and co-workers. Whether it's a homily, a Book Club session, a Bible Study session, or any of our devotions, please share what we're able to do here with other believers and people of goodwill. Not all parishes have the resources to do what we're able to do here. Please be generous and share our content.
