Fourth Sunday of Lent Laetare “Rejoice” Sunday March 14, 2021

- The charitable portion of our tithes this weekend will go to Catholic Relief Services, which is the international charitable arm of the US Bishops. We're happy to support this effort.
- This is Laetare Sunday, the midway point of Lent. In observance of this special Sunday, Mother Church tempers the penitential color of violet and clothes herself in a rose color. She also welcomes flowers in the sanctuary.
- The flowers in the sanctuary for Laetare Sunday are in memory of John McVoy and in honor of Edwina Strange.
- This Sunday, we're on our 28th day of preparation for the Consecration to Saint Joseph. I pray everyone can join us this Friday evening at 7:00 PM for the Saint Joseph Mass. The Mass will also be livestreamed.
- This Wednesday, our weekly Bible Study continues. We'll discuss the mysterious and powerful figure of Melchizedek (Genesis 14:17-24). After this Wednesday, the study will go on a three-week hiatus for the holy days. It will resume on Wednesday, April 14. As a reminder, all our Bible Study sessions can be found on our Grace Lily page.
