

Pulpit Announcements

Palm (Passion) Sunday

March 28, 2021

- The charitable portion of our tithe this weekend will go to KARE of Kershaw. This is a social outreach center in our greater vicinity. We're happy to support these efforts to serve those in need.
- Traditionally, today's Mass ends in silence. As a mark of the solemnity of the week to come, there is no music.
- With Palm Sunday, we begin Holy Week, the holiest week of the year. Please be sure to review our Holy Week schedule. Please note: On Monday, March 29, we do not have public Mass at the parish.
- Our Bible Study is currently on a holy day hiatus. It will resume on Wednesday, April 14. As a reminder, all our Bible Study sessions can be found on our Grace Lily page.
- Starting Easter (next Sunday), the parish will add a 12:30 PM Outdoor Mass on all Sundays of the Easter Season (April 4 – May 23). There are specific notes for this Mass. If you plan to attend, please be sure to review these Outdoor Mass Notes.
- The so-called "Equality Act" is gaining momentum in our government. Remember, this act has nothing to do with equality! Here is a letter from our Bishop. The "Equality Act" is an attempt to legislate an aggressive attack on houses of worship and faith-based organizations who do not support the LGBTQ+ movement. As Christians, we must make our voices heard. Please visit this link for action items. Also, here is a link to a recent homily I gave on the Equality Act.
