Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 22, 2022

- The charitable portion of our tithe this weekend will go to HOPE in Lancaster. This is our local social outreach center that assists our neighbors in need.
- The flowers in the sanctuary this weekend are in memory of Joseph and Mollie Savoy. May they rest in peace.
- In the narthex this weekend, we'll have our Spiritual Bouquet for our new Bishop. It's requested that every household in the parish make some spiritual commitment for our new Bishop. Such commitments could include rosaries, mercy chaplets, Holy Communions, etc. Please note these commitments on the card of the Spiritual Bouquet. It's important that we surround our new Bishop with our love and prayers.
- Also in the narthex, we have free Team Grace handkerchiefs available. The handkerchiefs are reminders to join your parish family in peaceful, prayerful protest at the local abortion facility in Charlotte. Our prayerful protest is next Saturday, May 28, at 8:30 AM. All are welcome to come and join us in prayer!
- In our continual effort to keep our parish census up-to-date, please let the Front Office know if any of your household's information has changed, such as email address, street, address, phone number, etc. Please also let us know if you're aware of someone who has left the parish. We also ask for those among us who have not yet registered to please do so. As we near the end of our fiscal year, it's important for us to know our true parish size and demographics.
