Happy Sunday, Team Grace!

This weekend, we make our way through the great season of Ordinary Time. It's an opportunity to re-hear the Gospel and re-commit ourselves to the Lord Jesus. This year, we're making our way through the sections of the Catechism of the Catholic Church on the Eucharist. This is a part of our parish's observance of the National Eucharistic Revival.

As a reminder, the Revival is sponsored by the US Bishops, who are addressing the widespread disbelief in the Real Presence of the Lord Jesus in the Eucharist. More information on the National Eucharistic Revival can be found here.

Some things happening around the parish:

At the request of some parishioners, the remaining copies of my recent book on social issues, Sanctify Them in Truth: How the Church's Social Doctrine Addresses the Issues of Our Time, are available in the narthex this weekend. The book addresses pressing social issues from the perspective of our faith.

Please note our new calendar for the program year 2022/2023 is now posted on our parish website. The calendar describes all of our events and programs for the coming year.

This coming Saturday, July 16, at 11:00 AM Mass, we'll have our annual Scapular Mass in honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. All are welcome. Those present will have the opportunity to be invested, or re-invested, in the Brown Scapular.

Some other future events I'd like to highlight:

On Tuesday, July 19, at our Noon daily Mass, the newly ordained transitional Deacon Peter Rusciollelli will serve and preach the Mass. Many of us have watched Peter go through his time of formation. This is a blessed opportunity for us to see him serve as a Deacon!

In response to a direct request of our Bishop, the parish will be starting a new Adoration time on Thursdays from 10:15 AM – 11:15 AM. The Holy Hour is for vocations to the priesthood. It will begin on Thursday, July 21. Please note that last weekend, my column mistakenly said July 14. The new Holy Hour actually begins on July 21. All are welcome!

In honor of Saints Joachim and Ann, the grandparents of our Lord, we will offer a special blessing to all grandparents at our weekend Masses on July 23-24.

On Sunday, July 24, at 12:15 PM, we will have our parish summer Ice Cream Social. We're going to have ice cream, whip cream, candies, and other toppings. It's going to be ice cream galore! All are welcome! Bring a friend!

Also on Sunday, July 24, we will have a Blood Drive here at the parish from 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM. As a pro-life people, I encourage all parishioners to regularly give blood. For those interested in giving blood on July 24, please visit this website.

On Wednesday, July 27, our daily Mass will be at 7:00 PM. The Mass will be in honor of my 15th Anniversary of Priestly Ordination. While it's difficult to personally celebrate anything this year, as my family and I grieve the loss of my father, I realize this is about the priesthood and merits to be publicly celebrated. And so, we turn to the altar together. It will be a consolation to celebrate this anniversary with each of you, my parish family. I pray many of you can join me for this Mass.

In observance of the National Eucharistic Revival, our parish will host a display of the Church's Eucharistic Miracles on August 13-14. The display will be held in the Parish Hall and will be available after all our weekend Masses.

Please note that the obligation for the Solemnity of the Assumption (August 15) is lifted this year. The holy day falls on a Monday, and so the Church dispenses from the obligation to participate in Mass. As such, we will only have our regular Noon Mass on August 15. All are welcome!

I'm happy to announce that next summer, June 2023, I'll be hosting a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and Rome. Here's an invitatory video. And here's the link to the website with more information. Please note this is not a parish pilgrimage. I am taking this pilgrimage on vacation time and inviting others to join me. Other friends and supporters will come from other parts of the country and be a part of the pilgrimage.

Be sure to read and review our revised and updated Security/Safety Protocols for Parishioners and Church/Holy Communion Pandemic Protocols.

More updates next week! Oremus pro invicem (let's pray for one another)!
