Trinity Sunday

June 4, 2023

- Our charitable tithes this weekend will go to the Saint Clare Home. This is a maternity home for unwed mothers right here in our own diocese. We're very happy to support this important outreach.
- The flowers in the sanctuary this weekend are in honor of the United States Armed Forces. May God protect and bless our troops!
- I hope everyone started some version or variation of the Liturgy of the Hours this past week. It's never too late to start! Be sure to join in the ancient and beautiful daily prayer of the Church! If anyone did not receive a copy of the Liturgy of the Hours, it might mean that you are not registered with us, or we have a wrong address for you, or you are not considered an "active parishioner" of the parish.
- Due to your generosity, we were able to give HOPE in Lancaster a $40,000 charitable donation in honor of their 40th anniversary. The donation was drawn from our charitable fund and from our revenue surplus this fiscal year. We are blessed to partner with HOPE in the service of those in need.
- In the narthex this week, two of my recent books of prayer are available for purchase. The book, Be Not Troubled, is a six-day at-home retreat on living in the present moment, and Manual for Suffering is a concise summary of our theology of redemptive suffering and a treasury of prayer and spiritual resources.
- Next weekend, June 10-11, the parish will host a Food Drive for HOPE in Lancaster. The outreach is requesting the following items: Juice (64 oz or bigger), canned beef stew or any canned meat, and jelly (no glass jars). Please bring these items with you to Mass. You can drop them off at the pavilion before Mass begins. Members of our Helping Hands ministry will be on-site to assist you.
- Next Sunday, June 11, the parish is happy to sponsor two blood buses! Yes, Team Grace, we have exceeded one bus and require two buses to cover the number of our blood donors. Please sign up to give blood here.
- Next Sunday, June 11, in honor of Corpus Christi, we'll have a special Eucharistic Procession after our 11:00 AM Mass. All are welcome! After the procession, we'll have some ice cream trucks on campus for our enjoyment!
