

Pulpit Announcements

Fourth Sunday of Advent

December 20, 2020

- The charitable portion of our tithes this weekend will go to the Retirement Fund for Religious. This is a national collection of the US Bishops in support of retired priests and Religious Brothers and Sisters who have served the Church throughout their lives. We're happy to support this effort!
- There are no flowers in the sanctuary in observance of the penitential nature of Advent.
- Congratulations to our Deacon Candidate, Tom Heath, who received the Ministry of Lector from Bishop Guglielmone last weekend. This is the first formal step to receiving Holy Orders. Congratulations, Tom!
- As a help to your holiday planning, our Masses for Christmas will be celebrated on December 24 at 4 PM, 6 PM, and 8 PM, as well as on December 25 at 10 AM. All of the Christmas Masses will be livestreamed. There will be no children's choir or children's homily at the Masses this year. As usual, our Masses are limited to 125 people on a first-come, first-served basis.
- In honor of Christmas, the Parish Office and church building will be closed on December 23-25. There is no daily Mass on December 23.
- Confessions will be heard after every Mass this weekend. Please make the time to stay after Mass and make a good Confession.
