Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 13, 2022

- Our charitable tithe this weekend will go to the Archdiocese for Military Services. This is a national collection. We are happy to support this pastoral outreach to our men and women in uniform. God bless our Armed Forces and their service to our nation!
- The flowers in the sanctuary this weekend are in memory of Chester Lubowiecki. May he rest in peace.
- This Monday evening, November 14, at 6:30 PM, we have our monthly Stations of the Cross for loved ones who have left the faith. All are invited to come and join us in this time of prayer.
- For this Monday only, we will not have Confessions during our weekly parish Holy Hour at 7:00 PM. I'll be away that evening for a personal appointment.
- This week on EWTN, November 14-18 at 5:30 PM (ET), I'll be co-hosting a miniseries entitled, Living the Christian Way. The series addresses major social issues of our day, including the LGBTQ+ movement, Critical Race Theory, gender equality, etc. All parishioners are encouraged to tune in for the miniseries!
- Next Saturday, November 19, we'll have our next Formation Day from 9:00 AM – 12 Noon. The day will focus on “Purgatory, Indulgences, Relics, and All Things Christian!” The event is free. No registration is needed. All are welcome!
- Many of you know John Paul Rusciolelli. He's a college student working on our staff as our current Director of Ministries. John Paul works diligently for the parish and has been a key staff member in the on-going post-pandemic mission of our parish. Well, John Paul was recently able to buy a small home in the Waxhaw area. As a help, I asked him to come up with a registry for things he might need for his new home. Here's the link to his registry. Please support John Paul in his new endeavor.
