Thirty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

November 15, 2020

- The charitable portion of our tithes this weekend will go in support of the Guatemalan Mission of our diocese. We're happy to support this foreign missionary effort.
- The flowers in the sanctuary are in memory of Nellie Vanleeuwen. May she rest in peace!
- Our weekly Bible Study continues this Wednesday. This past Wednesday's live session was cut short when YouTube crashed. We recorded the second part on Thursday, and so the entire lesson is now available on Grace Lily. This week, we'll continue our walk through Genesis and discuss the Sin of Ham (Genesis 9:18-29).
- Please note that this Wednesday will be our last Bible Study session for this calendar year. We will be taking next week off because of Thanksgiving, and will pause the Bible Study for Advent. After this Wednesday, our next session will be January 6, 2021.
- Our next Saturday morning Formation Day will be November 21. We'll be discussing the ways and methods of evangelization. Please tune in by livestream from 9:00 – 12 Noon.
- Please note that all parishioners will have an opportunity to make (or renew) their Consecration to Jesus through Mary on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (December 8). If you'd like to make (or renew) that Consecration, please be sure to make some form of preparation over the next few weeks.
