

Pulpit Announcements

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Labor Day

September 6, 2020

- The charitable portion of our tithe this weekend will go to the Saint Clare's Home. This is a home for unwed mothers that our diocese is hoping to launch soon. We're happy to support this important project. www.stclareshomesc.org
- The flowers in the sanctuary are in memory of Francis Mervak. May he rest in peace.
- This Monday is Labor Day. We give thanks for the American worker on this holiday. God bless America!
- On Monday, our church building and Parish Office will be closed in honor of the holiday. There will be no Confessions or public Mass. The Daily Briefing is cancelled. We will, however, still have our evening Holy Hour and Confessions at 7:00 PM.
- This Tuesday, September 8, we will begin to have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every Tuesday from 12:45 PM – 2:15 PM.
- This Wednesday, September 9, we will begin praying the Saint Dymphna Novena after every Wednesday Mass. After the Novena, Adoration will begin and continue until 2:15 PM.
- Also, on Wednesday, we will begin our weekly Bible study again. The study will be from 6:45 PM – 8:00 PM. We will walk through the 14 narrative books of the Bible, starting with Genesis. Be sure to join us for a great night of Divine Wisdom!