Twenty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

September 7, 2025

- Our charitable tithes this Sunday will go to the Saint Clare Home, which is a maternity home for unwed mothers right here in our own diocese. We're very happy to support this important outreach!
- The flowers in the sanctuary this weekend are in memory of Ron Saint Clair. May he rest in peace.
- The parish is seeking anyone who is familiar with Alcoholics Anonymous to please reach out to Father Kirby. We are trying to identify a few parishioners who can help us launch an AA group at the parish. Please email Father Kirby directly.
- Every Tuesday, our new Resurrection Bereavement Group meets. We currently have a morning session at 10:30 AM and an evening session at 7:00 PM. The group is a Catholic-based ten-week program for adult men and women to prayerfully walk through the grieving process together. Our morning session is going strong. Last week, we had no one show up for our evening session. We will keep the evening session active for a couple more weeks to see if anyone chooses to come. For more information, please see our parish website.
- Starting this Monday, September 8, at 1:00 PM, Deacon Doc will resume our parish Book Club. For this module, the group is reading the book, Real Discipleship: How to Follow Jesus His Way – Not Ours. All are welcome to be a part of this engaging and fun dive into what it means to follow Jesus Christ.
- Starting this Wednesday, September 10, from 10:30 AM – 11:45 AM, we're launching a new monthly program for small children and stay-home parents. Entitled, "Eucharistic Kids!," the program consists of Adoration and playtime. All small children and their parents are invited! For more information, please see our parish website.
- This Thursday, September 11, our Noon Mass will be a Memorial Mass for the victims of the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001. All are invited to come and pray for our nation.
