Holy Family Sunday

December 28, 2025

- We want to greet and warmly welcome all those who joined us for our Christmas Day Masses and are back this Sunday. We are very happy that you are with us! Thank you for taking this next step in your relationship with the Lord Jesus. Now, it's time to get to Confession!
- Our charitable tithes this Sunday will go to the missionary efforts throughout the African continent. This is a national collection of the US Bishops.
- The Christmas flowers throughout the sanctuary and church are in honor of the intentions of the various donors who contributed to our holiday flowers this year. The intentions of our donors can be found on our parish website. Thank you for your generous support!
- This Sunday, we have sign-ups in the narthex for Nocturnal Adoration this coming Friday - Saturday, January 2-3. Adoration is a great way to start the New Year! Please be generous with your time and give an hour of prayer to the Lord Jesus.
- In observance of the Christmas solemnity, the parish campus will close at 5:00 PM this Monday and Tuesday, December 29 and 30. Morning and afternoon events will be held as usual. All evening events, however, are suspended. This includes our Monday evening Alcoholics Anonymous.
- In honor of the New Year, our parish campus and church building will be closed this Wednesday, December 31. There is no public Mass. All events are suspended. Happy New Year!
- The Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, this Thursday, January 1, is a Holy Day of Obligation. Our Masses here at the parish are on Thursday, January 1, at 7:30 AM, 9:00 AM, 11:00 AM, and 7:00 PM. Confessions will be available after each of the Masses.
- Our First Friday and First Saturday observances will all occur as usual this coming Friday and Saturday. For more information, please visit our parish website.
- Next Saturday, January 3, in honor of the Epiphany, we'll have Vespers at 4:00 PM and a festive Epiphany Stocking Fellowship afterwards. For the fellowship, everyone receives their own stocking and then moves through the different booths in the Parish Hall and fill their stockings with their favorite candies and treats. Everyone is invited – the young and the young of heart!
